DENVER

Spring with its invigorating and sunny weather is at last here in all its glory. While Southern California may boast of a wonderful climate, it lacks the fascination of the ever changing seasons. Flowers and others plants have their appeal at all times, but in a climate like Colorado they are appreciated all the more. The municipal parks and mountain sides are putting on a new and beautiful frock of green, soon to be followed by a sprinkling of vari-colored flowers.

With the advent of spring James Alford disposed of his trusty Ford touring with its yellow wheels. He purchased a light-green touring Oldsmobile. He says it is a six cylinder, too. It is rumored that Ray and Luther Alford will soon follow suit. Happily the craze for high-priced cars is at the present time confined to only one family.

Mrs. Ray Cummings is spending a few days at the home of her mother-in-law at Westminster, Col. While there she is pedaling the sewing machine, preparatory to an invasion of St. Paul for an extended visit to her home folks this summer. Meanwhile Ray is basking at his shack in East Denver.

H. E. Grace was down from Greeley again on the 5th and 6th insts. On the latter date he gave an interesting sermon, which an unusually large number was present to hear. It is encouraging to note that the sermons of Mr. Grace are finding much favor among the deaf of Denver. With his ordination as a deacon this coming summer, his followers will be assured of more frequent Biblical interpretations.

Sunday, April 13th, a business meeting was held by the Silent Bible Class. The following officers were chosen for the next biennial term: F. S. Reid, Superintendent; G. E. Gajewski, Secretary; Mrs. Geo. W. Huff, Treasurer. A parting word of appreciation was tendered to Mrs. Ed. Whitaker, who conducted the meetings so harmoniously for the past six months. With the newly elected officers, Messrs. T. Y. Northern and Robert H. Frewing were chosen as a committee to go over the old books and to draw up a schedule for the next six months.

The countenance of Mrs. Lacie Shelton is all smiles nowadays. The reason is her two youngest sons are again with her. After an absence of a little over a year, it is needless to say all concerned are once more in high spirits.

A stag party by the local division of the N. E. S. D. on April 19th, is the special attraction of the month. The Liberty Club has outlined a literary program for its next public meeting which will take place on May 10th. A reading, dialogue and declamation, with several added attractions, will take up the evening. Come one and all, and make this a howling success.

The Portland Cement Industry

A few side lights on the magnitude of the cement industry are afforded by its consumption of certain raw materials.

In coal consumption the industry is reported to occupy fourth place among American coal-using manufacturing in 1921, with a consumption of 7,400,000 tons.

It also used 3,000,000 barrels of crude oil and 3,000,000 cubic feet of natural gas. In the same year the industry used 14,000,000 pounds of dynamite for blasting.

The raw materials, limestone, shale, slag, etc., exclusive of fuel and explosives, amounted to about 30,000,000 tons an average of more than 600 pounds to the barrel of cement (733 pounds).

For the shipment of a large part of the output of finished cement, 30,000,000 new sacks are estimated to be required annually; this quantity of sacks represents the combined operation of 1,600 looms every day for a year and the material from 15,000,000 pounds of baled cotton. The cloth that goes into these sacks if woven in one piece 30 inches wide would be 17,000 miles long.

It is estimated that the total investment in the Portland cement industry is about $800,000,000, the total number of employees more than 36,000, and the annual payroll more than $60,600,000.

ST. ANN'S CHURCH.

The Lenten season at St. Ann's closed in splendor with Palm Sunday and Easter Day. Palm Sunday was made noteworthy by the sermon delivered by the Rev. Dr. Arthur H. Judge, Rector of the Church of St. Matthew and St. Timothy. Dr. Judge's main subject was the necessity of religion in making our home life decent and happy. His sermon, which was translated into signs by Miss Virginia B. Gallaudet, was full of wise counsel to the men and women of the congregation.

Easter Day followed a successful Holy week during which the daily evening prayer services showed a record attendance this year. The showers on Easter Sunday cut down the church crowd to less than were present last year; but this insured a seat for everybody who came. About 400 people were present from all over New York, Long Island, and New Jersey. The altar was decorated profusely with lilies and other appropriate blossoms. The Rev. John H. Kent administered the Holy Communion to 178 people, assisted by the Rev. Mr. Bradley, a deacon from one of the New York churches. The choir, led by Mr. Keith Watt Morris, organist, consisted of Mrs. Johanna McCuskey, and Misses Eleanor Sherman, Mabel Hall, Cecile Hunter, Katherine Thompson, and Doris Paterson. The sermon of the Rev. Mr. Kent was the culmination of a series of powerful and interesting sermons on Faith delivered during the Lenten Season.

Both on Palm Sunday and Easter Sunday the out-of-town people who came to see the afternoon services stayed in the Parish House until late in the evening, renewing friendships and conversing. Many of them had their supper in the Tea Room, where Mrs. Isabella S. Fomire and a committee of assistants prepared home-made luncheon at a very low price.

The first stage entertainment given in St. Ann's Guild Room after Lent was the O. W. L. S. vaudeville of Saturday evening, April 26. The profits of this affair go to the fund to help poor and deserving girls completing their education at Gallaudet College. Over $50 was taken in at the gate from a large crowd. The program, though not as interesting as the last year's OWLS affair, had its good points and funny spots. The funniest was an artificial Spanish bull, which looked like Spark-Plug with a pair of horns, and which was moved around by the much invisible Misses Boatwright and Ballance.

The two declamatory pieces sung in signs were the best features in point of effort; but the audience was in no mood to give the attention and appreciation that was deserved.

The program was as follows:

I.—CARMEN UP TO DATE
Carmen . . . . . Florence Lewis
Escamillo . . . . . Sara Ragna
Jose . . . . . Belle Pusrin

II.—MANNERS AND MILLINERY

On April 26th, 1924, a pleasant surprise party was given to Mr. and Mrs. John Breden, in honor of their five years' anniversary of marriage at their home in Springfield, L. I. They were surprised with of our coming, and did not know what they should do. But soon they were enjoying the games. A delicious supper was served. The Lutheran friends demanded Mr. Downs to make a short speech, wishing the couple lots of happiness and luck every day. A good time was had by all. Those who were present were besides Mr. and Mrs. Breden's brothers and sisters, Mr. and Mrs. Downs, Mr. and Mrs. H. Borgstrand, K. Christgau, E. Berg, Mr. and Mrs. W. Aalbu, P. Berg, J. Nesgood, Frank Prims, E. Prims, I. Ruge, J. Lind, Mr. Kadigohn, E. Mr. Lindschmidt, Mr. Weinstein.

Manhattan Division, No. 87, will hold its first social of the season with a Whist and Dance, to be held in the Parish Hall of St. Ann's Church this coming Saturday, May 3d. Cash prizes to winners. The game will start promptly at 8:30 to make time for dancing. The committee begs those who wish to participate in the games to be on hand early. Refreshments will be on sale. The proceeds of the evening will be used to defray the expenses of the delegates to the St. Paul Convention, and it is hoped that Frats from the neighboring Divisions will be on hand to help.

The most absorbing topic of conversation among several of the boys at the Deaf-Mutes' Union League is baseball, and as they attend games every Saturday and Sunday and any other day if they can get off from work, they are versed on most of the fine plays executed by League players of different clubs. They already have conceded the National pennant for 1924 to the Giants, and the American pennant to the Yankees.

After the game they discuss baseball at the club rooms, and sometimes have quite a crowd of interested would-be fans.

Albert Neger, a graduate of the Fanwood School, after taking a short course in linotype has secured a steady position in Philadelphia, and is doing well. Thanks to the deaf of Pennsylvania Albert is able to operate his own auto, and last Friday on his way to Newark stopped at the New Jersey School for the Deaf, and took Mr. Abraham Barr to Newark, where they both attended the Frats' Leap Year Ball in the evening.

The Outing of the Deaf-Mutes' Union League to Patchogue, L. I., on Sunday, June 16th, is an assured fact, as two buses have been engaged, with likelihood of a third one, to convey the members to and fro. At Patchogue there will be games, and prizes be awarded to winners. A fine chicken dinner will be served at the shore.

At her home, Broadway and 179th Street, Sunday evening, April 27th, Mrs. Gooding had a small "at home," in honor of her fellow Northampton graduates, Mrs. Williams and Mrs. Hull, both of Boston. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. McMann, Mr. and Mrs. Kane, Miss Mabel Johns, Miss Emily Andem, and Messrs. Pach and Fitzgerald.

The Greater New York Branch of the National Association of the Deaf will hold its next meeting at Fanwood, Saturday evening, May 10th, at 8 P. M. All members are requested to be present. Reports of Social Committee and Publicity Committee will be made at this meeting.

To spend a pleasant afternoon and evening, attend the Strawberry Festival to be given by the Sorority of Jewish Deaf, at the Hebrew Educational Society, Sutter and Hopkinson Avenue, Brooklyn, Sunday, May 11th. Refreshments, games and prizes aplenty.

Deaf friends will be interested to learn the engagement of Miss Blanche Mandelbaum, of Fanwood School, and Reuben Lieber, of Lexington Avenue School, on April 15th. No date is set for the wedding. Congratulations!

The Deaf Mutes' Union League will shortly practice at Van Cortlandt Park, Captain Taber has a lengthy list in which to pick a team that will face the Fanwoods on Saturday, June 14th, 1924.

A whist party will be given by the Lexington Alumni Association, in the school building, on Saturday, May 10th, at 8 o'clock. Admission, fifty cents, including refreshments.

Mr. Albert V. Ballin has arrived safely in Los Angeles, where he went on business. For his sake we hope that he will meet with success.

Presidential Nomination.

MR. EDITOR:—From intensive investigation here and elsewhere, I find there is a deep-rooted sentiment among the members of the National Fraternal Society of the Deaf for the retention of that capable executive, Harry C. Anderson, of Indianapolis, in his present position of president.

When the "Chicago steam-roller" steamed over all opposition and rolled him into office at Columbus, 1912, the society had 1109 members, 35 divisions, and a pitiful $21,735.54. At St. Paul, it will show some 5500 members, over 100 divisions, and way over half-a-million dollars! Note, please, the phenomenal increase in financial strength—proportionate to our less-phenomenal but highly satisfactory increase in members and divisions.

As "Prexy" Anderson personally attends to the investment of every single penny of frat funds; as our society has never lost a cent in interest or principal during his rule; as "Prexy" is one of those cool, cool-headed clams of the Cal Coolidge type; we 100% frats would be utterly idiotic to consider any other candidate so long as "Prexy" is willing to shoulder the colossal load. And Anderson assures me he is willing to stand as candidate "in a receptive sense."

Personally, I am not exactly crazy over "Prexy." I have met many better politicians; many better mixers; many back-slappers, hand-shakers, hail-fellows-well-met. At times "Prexy" has pained me with his straight-faced old-fashioned New England policies.

But a half-million-dollar corporation is no child's toy, and figures don't lie. I joined the society with the avowed purpose of seeing that "our widows shall get their money." And, with that purpose paramount, I herewith gladly start the steam roller carrying the banner: Anderson for President.

Nadfraternally,
J. FREDERICK MEAGHER.

NEW JERSEY.

On Saturday evening, April 26th, the Newark Division, No. 42, of the National Fraternal Society of the Deaf held its Leap Year Masquerade Ball at the Eagle Hall, 28 East Park Street, Newark, N. J., a convenient place for New Yorkers to reach, as it is near the Tube, and one only has to walk around a corner to get to the place.

On entering the hall, the first person you encountered was Albert Poline, who was incased in a booth selling pasteboards that admitted you to the ball.

On ascending a flight of stairs you were greeted with smiling faces by Messrs Albert Dirkes and Carmine Pace, who collected your pasteboards, that admitted you to the dance hall, and several polite members would direct the ladies to the left and gentlemen to the right to have their wraps, overcoats, hats, etc., checked.

The directing spirit of the affair was Mr. Alfred W. Shaw, who was ably assisted by Mr. William Atkinson, besides there were Messrs Walter Pease and Charles Casella, who rendered much valuable assistance to the manager and his assistant.

After you had been relieved of your wrap or overcoat and was inside on the dancing floor, you could not help seeing John Golden and his assistant in their capacity of Floor Manager and Floor Committee directing things, which went through from beginning to end very smoothly.

If one felt thirsty, in another room soft drinks were to be had, but first you would have to see Mr. Wilbur Rapp, another member of the committee, who had charge of this department.

The hall is not a very large one, but for the purpose last Saturday evening it was just right, as about four hundred attended, and there was no jamming or overcrowding.

Although the affair was advertised as a Leap Year Masquerade Ball, only a few took the pains to try for the cash prizes, by coming to the ball as Romeos and Julietts or in some other kind of make up, consequently every one who donned a mask got a prize in cash.

The lucky prize winners were: First—($10 each) to Mrs. Coe and Mr. A. Greiff.

Second—($5 each) to Mrs. Droste and Mr. W. Battersbery.

Third—($3 each) to Irene Bihder and Max Gurfinkel.

Fourth—($3 each) to Miss Spoug and Robert C. Harth.

Fifth—($2 each) to Mrs. J. M. Black and Nicholas Cairano.

Sixth—($1 each) to Norman Magnus and Mrs. Blanche Nimmo.

The affair was orderly conducted and reflects great credit on Mr. Alfred W. Shaw and his committee Messrs. Walter Pease, Albert Bal-muth, Charles Casella, J. Golden, J. Lipkin, A. Dirkes, J. Kaman, W. Atkinson, W. Rapp, C. Pace, A. Poline, A. Barbamlo, C. Quigley, F. Kalter.

The management of the hat room was also conducted by Newark fraters. Messrs. Albert Balmuth, A. Haman, A. Barbamlo and Charles Ingley.

The officers of the Newark Division, No. 42, N. F. S. D., for the present term are: President, John M. Black; Vice-President, J. Aaron; Secretary, A. King; Treasurer, A. W. Shaw; Director, E. Bradley; Sergeant-at-Arms, J. Hering; Messenger, H. Redman; Trustees, J. Ward, T. McMahon and B. Abrams.

There was a goodly number of New York and Brooklyn silent in attendance, and the management feels grateful for the patronage.

Taken all in all, the affair was a success both socially and financially.

Of course the big guns of Jersey City and Hoboken were present.

Henry W. Hester almost all evening was surrounded by a group of admirers, as also was Mr. Hammer, another leading spirit of the Jersey Frats.

The President of the Brooklyn and Bronx Frats were there.

Mendel Berman in a latest spring suit was a strikingly attractive figure.

And the ever smiling countenance of Joseph Graham of the Bronx was noticeable.

On this occasion perhaps the most dignified personage was Mr. John M. Black, the president of the Newark Division. He led the Grand March with Mrs. Black.

There was also present our friend Mr. Arthur Lincoln Thomas, who resembles a French Count. He is widely known by a large circle of friends.

There were many charming ladies present, some young, others advanced in years having families, all elegantly attired, that graced the assemblage, but names are omitted because to mention only a few and neglect the rest would not be fair.

Mr. William B. Magill, an old-time pupil of Fanwood, who has not been heard for quite a long time, is living and pursuing the trade he learned while at school at Fanwood under Mr. E. A. Hodgson in the Printing Office and is getting along nicely. Since he left school about forty years ago, he has not mingled socially with the deaf, and several of his friends had given him up as dead.

Perhaps it may interest some of the readers of the JOURNAL tell of the Trenton School, where the illustrated magazine for the deaf, the Silent Worker, is published.

As is already known a tract of land for new buildings was purchased about three years ago, for the erection of a school on the out-tage plan, in the Junction district of Trenton. We had the pleasure of inspecting the progress already made.

First we called on our old, time-chum and classmate, Mr. George S. Porter, who has made the Silent Worker what it is today, for he built it up gradually from a small school paper to a fine magazine. We found him busy in his office, not only supervising the printing of the Silent Worker, but on other work for the Commonwealth of New Jersey.

Mr. Porter has an assistant for each of his several departments, Linotype, Press-work, Proof-reading, Photo engraving, etc.

When last we visited the Silent Worker office, about twelve years ago, all the work was mostly done by hand, but today all the composition is done by eight linotype machines, and the office space has doubled, new presses added, folding and stitching machine installed, and an up to date photo-engraving machine put up, making the establishment indeed a very big plant in which to turn out lots of work.

Through Mr. Porter was quite busy, and pretty tired from moving his household goods to a new home he had just purchased, he kindly showed me around, and on the day we called to see him, last Friday, he even took me to see the new school, where the Primary Department there was opened last fall, though not completed.

From what we were able to see, the place will be a model establishment for such a school for the deaf.

The old school was never suitable for a school, never having ample accommodations for all the deaf of school age, and not enough play grounds, but the new site, with its 90 acres, will be a heaven to the present and coming generation of deaf children of New Jersey.

What little we were able to see, seems to have been admirably planned.

The grounds, though now seemingly a wilderness, are being fixed up by landscape gardeners, and with a lake on the left side, it looks to me as if in the winter time the pupils will have a real fine skating rink right at hand.

The buildings for the advanced or Academic Grades have not been commenced, but it is said that real work will begin on July 1st, and pushed on to a conclusion, so that they will be completed in a year or so.

We did not have the pleasure of meeting the superintendent, Mr. Pope, but we learned that he is giving all his energies to the construction of this fine establishment.

FANWOOD.

Our team of school boys won the one mile Relay Race in the stadium of University of Pennsylvania, Saturday, April 26th, before a crowd of 40,000 spectators, amid glorious April sunshine which made our winning team feel thrilled. Our team had no difficulty in triumphing over Pennsylvania Institution for the Deaf and the other teams of preparatory schools for the hearing. Heintz (first leg), a newcomer, took second or third place after a hard struggle. His baton was handed to Shafraek, an inexperienced runner, who scattered his records in try outs. He was successful in outrunning the others, who were in close with the second leg of the Pennsylvania deaf team. D. Fox, our champion middle distance runner, grabbed the baton from him and easily led all the way. He dashed to the finish of his leg, when fifty yards away, in order to give James Gagrick (Captain), who is a natural, steady runner, a safe lead, which he held from start to finish. It was wonderful and exciting.

The Fanwood boys were awarded a larger banner on which was illuminated the names of schools that competed. It is very beautiful. They also received gold medals. The record was 3:48, which is very good for beginners.

Our physical director for the girls was married on April 19th, to Dr. William Foster Somers.

Gallaudet College.

Last week's letter from the Green was not forthcoming, since the students were on their vacations at Great Falls and Kamp Kohler. All returned Monday, and are refreshed from the change. Camp life was a little hard due, to the raw weather which prevailed. Perchance it's only a blessing in disguise as we seem to appreciate the life here all the more after roughing it a bit. Fishing was fine at Great Falls, and there was a motor launch at the disposal of the girls at Kamp Kohler, so a ride on Chesapeake Bay when the waves were running high was the topping event down.

The engagement of Miss Margaret E. Wafer, instructor in drawing and designing, to Mr. Leonard Elstad, assistant in English and History, has been announced. The wedding will take place in June after, which the couple will motor to Mr. Elstad's home in North Dakota.

Mr. Ishizawa, an attaché to the Japanese embassy, spoke to the students under the auspices of Y. M. C. on Sunday, the 27th. It was a very instructive lecture, and we are indeed very fortunate to have heard him.

Just before the address Mr. Robert C. Fletcher, '26, was inaugurated as president for the coming year. Mr. Reginald G. McCready, of the Class of 1927, has returned to his home in Oklahoma.

The Kappa Gamma fraternity was host at an informal dance in the gymnasium on the evening of the twenty-fifth. This dance for eclipses any social event of the college year, and it is needless to say that the boys and girls enjoyed it.

The interclass track and field meet will be held on Saturday, May 3d, and the usual enthusiasm prevails. Members of the team, which will compete against George Washington on May 17th, will be chosen from winners in these events.

Boatwright started pitching, but the Marines found him too easy, and got five runs in the first inning. Knauss, a newcomer on the pitching staff, relieved him and did better. The hitting of the big leather necks was too terrific for our fielders to handle. Aside from a number of errors, the game wasn't half bad.

B. Wright had the best day with the stick and will probably be shifted to clean up place on the batting order. The reporter is unable to obtain the line-up or score by innings.

Miss Helen Moss, '23, was a visitor last week. She has been taking a course in one of the Art Schools of Baltimore.

Mr. Roach was a visitor Sunday, in company with Mr. W. D. Edington, of this city.

John T. Boatwright, the college ace, competed in the pentathlon at the University of Pennsylvania, but did not finish. Boaty found the other competitors a little too good for him, as they represent America's best.

The college had no relay team this year, as there was no fourth man available. Beauchamp, who was a member of the team for two years, is suffering with rheumatism and is not running this season.

The team representing Brairley Hall Academy proved a force this year and it was a romp for our team. Errors were frequent on both sides and the pitchers were wild as hares, yet it represents our first win of the year.

We suffered another setback when the tossers down at the barracks in Virginia handed us a 12 to 4 beating. This team has run over all the college teams it has played this year and are really beyond our class.

Opposed to Women Frats.

At the regular monthly business meeting of the Puget Sound Association of the Deaf in Seattle at Carpenter's Hall, April 12th, there arose an animated discussion about opening the door of the Frats to Women, started by Mr. Olof Hanson, the only enthusiast for women joining the Frats.

Most of the debaters were against the question and the majority raised their hands in favor of Anti-Woman Frats, in spite of Mr. Hanson's lengthy pleading.

I am wholly opposed to the proposition of admitting women, because of the small means of the average deaf man. It is claimed the married women do not have to join, but the young ones should. They will become wives and mothers like the rest of us. What then? Drop the insurance or sacrifice?

Mr. Holcombe affirmed that while his wife was living the insurance she carried had aggravated their constrained condition.

One deaf lady died recently, and her husband received one thousand dollars, but it is well-known she would have been a happier wife and mother if it was not for that insurance burden. Her baby did not have a single toy.

The men are thinking about themselves too much, when they insist they need to be beneficiaries, for that is really what it amounts to—no young woman is benefitting herself taking out Frat insurance, she is going to keep her nose to the grindstone for some one else. There are still plenty of eligible boys to help them financially, by joining the Frats, but it is easier to ask the ladies to help them.

The 20-year endowment fund is what is needed by young girls for protection. The Frats do not have that.

Women are getting as independent as men, but things are not changed much yet for the married woman if she has a home, and has to look after it when returning from work. She has to look after the children even if there is a hired girl. Thus woman's duties are more numerous than a man's. Then why thrust more responsibility on her by the Frat Insurance without adequate returns.

Mrs. N. F. Walker

The morning of April 3rd we were saddened by the receipt of a telegram announcing the passing away at Cedar Spring, S. C., of Mrs. Virginia Eppes Walker, wife of Dr. Newton F. Walker, superintendent of the South Carolina School, and mother of our president, Dr. A. H. Walker. Dr. and Mrs. Walker and all other members of the family were present when the end came. The burial took place the following day in the Walker family grave-yard in Spartanburg, S. C.

For nearly sixty years the school at Cedar Spring had been graced by the presence of Mrs. Walker, who next to her husband, had perhaps done more than any other individual for the comfort, happiness, training, education and general welfare of the deaf and the blind of South Carolina. Her life work had been the mothering of the hundreds of children who have attended the Cedar Spring School and who have grown up to call her blessed.

Five children were born to her: Horace E. Walker, formerly superintendent of the Tennessee School; Albert H. Walker, our president; Newton P. Walker (deceased); W. Laurens Walker, principal of the South Carolina School, and Mrs. Robert M. Hitch, of Savannah, Ga.

Mrs. Walker on her frequent visits to this school as guest of her son, Albert, had endeared herself to every one here who had the opportunity of meeting and knowing her. The last visit was made only last January during the conference, and her health, which had not been good for a year or so, gave much concern to her friends.

We hope to tell our readers something more about this great souled mother in the next issue of the HERALD.

To our Dr. and Mrs. Walker, Dr. N. F. Walker the bereaved husband, Prof. Laurens and Horace Walker and all other members of the family we extend our heartfelt sympathy.

—U. in Florida Herald.

Mrs. Clara Johnson

Mrs. Clara Johnson, wife of Richard O. Johnson, business director of the Indianapolis school board, died of apoplexy yesterday in her home, 2005 North Delaware Street. Mrs. Johnson was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James McBride of Kokomo, Ind. She came to Indianapolis when she was married to Mr. Johnson in 1889, and had lived here since that time. She was an active member of St. Paul's Episcopal Church. Besides her husband, a son, Richard K. Johnson, a traveling representative of the Encaustic Tile Works; a daughter, Mrs. Thomas Harrison Grant, wife of the president of the first National Bank of Fulton, Mo.; a sister, Mrs. John A. Bechtel of Pittsburgh, Pa., and one grandson, Thomas Harrison Grant, Jr., survive. A sister, Mrs. M. F. Brand, died suddenly about three months ago while Mrs. Johnson was visiting at her home.—Indianapolis Star, April 15.

OHIO.

Lovely hyacinths and tulips have made the school rooms look cheerful all this week. They are from the institution greenhouse.

Miss Carrier Lingle, of Dayton, was a caller at the school Thursday. She had with her Mrs. Robert Jones (nee Larrow) of Detroit, who many years ago was a pupil in the school.

The Columbus Ladies Aid Society furnished an Easter treat of oranges and candy to the residents at the Home. Flowers were sent out from the school helping the folks there to enjoy Easter.

Mr. Ernest Zell was forced to remain at home for a day or so nursing a cold, and thus causing Miss Ethelburga to fall back on street cars to go to and from school.

Two little hearing girls accompanied by their mother came to the Easter morning with baskets of eggs and candies, and asked that they be given to some children who had not received any remembrances from home. This little act brought happiness not only to the recipients but to the donors also.

Mrs. Lizzie Crumpton (Elizabeth Kingley) passed away April 16th, at the home of a daughter in Lancaster. Mrs. Crumpton had been a resident at the Ohio Home for nineteen years and was a sweet old lady liked by all. She had a very sick spell a few months ago, but recovered sufficiently to be taken to her daughter's home. She was eighty-four years old and five daughters survive her. Burial was at Miamisburg, near Dayton. She will be greatly missed.

We are sorry to have to record the death of Mr. George Phillabaum at Fort Wayne, Ind. While at his work at the Dudlo Company, he came in contact with an electric wire at a point where the insulation was badly worn off, and having wet feet the shock brought instant death to him. He was rushed

THE Colorado Institution for the Deaf and Blind celebrated its Fiftieth Anniversary on May 1st.

The Institution was opened in April, 1874, starting in a rented building at a cost of fifty dollars a month.

It was founded by Jonathan R. Kennedy, who formerly resided in Kansas and had three children who had spent several terms at the Kansas Institution. The contrast between them and one or more neglected deaf-mutes of Colorado was so painfully apparent, that the legislature decided on a school without a dissenting vote.

The first principal was James D. Ralstin, who was succeeded by Roswell H. Kinney, R. P. McGregor, Prender W. Downing, Simon T. Walker, Hugh M. Harbert (acting) John W. Blattner, covering a period of five years. David C. Dudley began under the new law, which placed the Institution under a single head. It had hitherto been a dual government.

On the retirement of Mr. W. C. Dudley, Mr. John E. Ray, formerly of North Carolina, was made superintendent.

He was in turn succeeded by Mr. W. K. Argo, under whom the school made great progress, until his lamented death four or five years ago.

Mrs. Argo, who had long been familiar with the education of the deaf, was appointed to the vacancy caused by the death of her husband, but in a year or so she too died.

The present superintendent is Mr. Thomas S. McAloney, a Gallaudet Normal graduate, and until a year or so ago, for many years head of the Institution for the Blind at Pittsburgh, Pa.

Those who attended the Convention of the National Association of the Deaf, held at Colorado Springs about fifteen years ago, will well recall the beautiful buildings on an eminence fronting Pike's Peak, in their spick and span condition both inside and out, and can rejoice with the deaf of Colorado that they have such a splendid educational institution on such a picturesque site, which receives and well deserves the liberal bounty of the State.

Have Silent Wedding.

MONROE MICH., April 26—A type-writer came to the rescue when two deaf-mutes appeared before Justice Lee Smith to be married. The Justice pounded out the ritual, an interpreter translated it into the sign language as the Justice recited it, and Jacob Kaiser, thirty-five, and Mildred Comer, twenty-one, both of Bucyrus, O., were married without saying a word.

A Correction.

TO THE EDITOR:—The news in the DEAF-MUTES' JOURNAL of 17th said that it was rumored that I was engaged, but I beg to say that rumor is not true.

Canadian Clippings.

Miss Lizzie McKechnie, of Portage, La. Prairie, Man., was the guest of her cousin, Mrs. H. W. Roberts, during the week of April 20th. Mr. Charles Davidson, principal of the Garnet Public School, and Mr. John L. MacDonald, B.A., one of the Principals of the Ottawa Collegiate Institution, who came up to attend the Convention of the Ontario Educational Association, were also guests of their cousins at "Mora Glen," at the same time.

On April 22d, the stork came to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Alex. B. McCaul, and left.

A bouncing baby girl,

A gift from Above,

A youngster to care for,

A darling to love.

Of course our congratulations are theirs. Mrs. McCaul was formerly Miss Mary Green, of Chesley, and was married to Mr. McCaul, of Toronto, some ten years ago. This is their first offspring.

The monthly meeting for April of the Sunshine Circle was held on the 24th, at the home of Mrs. George Brethour, 12 Ferrier Avenue. Owing to illness and other causes there was not a full attendance.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Mason, and the former's sister Mrs. L. Mishaw, children of Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Mason, motored to St. Catharines, where they spent Easter with relatives. They had a pleasant time.

Mr. Daniel Gordon, who was laid off from the Goodyear Co., a couple of months ago, is now back on his old job once more, and we trust he will hold on, for he has a young wife and two little budding Gordons to look after.

Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Watt were out to Birch Cliffe, on April 26th, and had tea with Mr. and Mrs. Lionel Bell.

The Brigidin Club held its last regular meeting of the season, on April 26th. There was a small attendance, but those who turned up certainly had a good time, telling stories and cracking conundrums. The club will hold a strawberry festival and its third annual picnic in the near future. Notice will be given in due time.

Mr. and Mrs. Alex. B. McCaul have named their little one, Jean Christina McCaul. It was born at Grace Hospital.

Messrs. F. E. Doyle, H. E. Grooms, W. C. Mackey, H. W. Roberts and A. C. Shepherd, were up on different days during the week of April 21st-26th, on their annual examinations on Postal Laws and regulations of the Civil Service. The questions were most baffling, but the results will not be known for some weeks yet.

There was a social and card party held at Loretto Abbey on April 25th, under the auspices of the Catholic fraternity. A pleasant time is reported by all who took in the evening's frivolities.

Mr. Samuel Pagsley is very busy now, doing painting and paper-hanging on the contract plans. He finds it hard to keep up with his orders. Mr. John B. Stewart is another busy man in this line.

At time of writing ex-Supt. Philip Fraser is laid up with an attack of bronchitis. We trust for a speedy recovery.

We regret to say that Mr. Wm. Cornish is now obliged to take to his bed, and is a very weak man just at present. Consumption has the better of him, yet he is most cheerful, and his callers are doing all they can to comfort him.

Miss Ada James, one of the teachers at the Belleville School, who spent Easter with her parents in St. Thomas, was in our midst over the week-end of April 26th, while on her way back to her duties. She was the guest of Mrs. Moore, and the latter invited a few friends to tea on the eve of Miss James' departure for Belleville.

Mr. George W. Reeves was in London for the Sunday service on April 27th, which was very largely attended. Mr. Reeves went up the day previous to attend the last social of the season, of the London Association of the Deaf, which was held Saturday evening, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Cornford.

Mr. W. R. Watt spoke at our service on Sunday, April 27th, in place of Mr. Terrell. He dwelt upon the way we come to God. The more we study the living Word the nearer we come to a perfect life in the eyes of our Creator.

Mr. A. H. Jaffray, who went up to conduct the Sunday service for friends in Sarnia on April 27th, had an audience of fourteen. There were friends from Wyoming, Oil Springs, Port Huron, and other places.

Mr. Lorne Colough, who has been out of work for a long time has secured work now at the Good year Company.

Our Epworth League topic for April 23d was on the reign of Ehud of Benjamin of eighty years, of Barak of Naphtali of forty years, and the same length of time of Gideon of Manasseh, characterizing Gideon's laudable modesty in his victory in refusing to assume the responsibility of an usurped government.

Mr. A. W. Mason was most agreeably surprised yet pleased to receive a visit from one of his former pupils, Dr. Daniel Ariss, who dropped in unexpectedly the other day. The Doctor, who first received his tutelage as an artist under Mr. Mason, left for Edmonton, Alberta, on his graduation over 18 years ago, but later sold out and became a chiropractic doctor in Davenport, Iowa, for a number of years, then moved to Clifford, Ont., where he is now located. Mr. Mason, who is an artist of no little repute, can boast as the teacher with the brush and easel, of many leading artists scattered throughout the land. Dr. Ariss openly confessed that Father Time has been most lenient to his old teacher and his estimable wife.

We were glad to meet our young friend, Mr. A. C. Sedlowsky, of New York, once more. He formerly lived here, but went to the American metropolis more than a year ago. By appearance he seems to be making the grade across the line. He came over for a short visit during the recent Easter holidays.

GENERAL GLEANINGS

In sending in their subscription for the DEAF-MUTES' JOURNAL, Mr. and Mrs. Orval E. Orser of Tristram, Alberta, give a rosy report of the outlook for a great season on the grain belt of the west. They are prospering on the prairies, Mrs. Orser was formerly Miss Elizabeth Veith, and not Margaret, as previously stated.

Mr. A. H. Staubits, of Kitchener, was in Buffalo visiting relatives and friends over Easter. He gave a soul stirring address to the deaf of that city on Easter Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Lionel Bell, of Birch Cliffe, hid themselves away to Trenton, Ont., where they spent Easter-tide with the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ketcheson.

We regret to state that Mrs. J. Ursula Johnson, of Barrie, has been in the Royal Victoria Hospital in that town for the past ten weeks, suffering from an ailment that has troubled her for years, which became more acute several weeks ago, hence her removal to the hospital. However, we are pleased to state a change for the better is now apparent, and we trust for a speedy recovery.

Mr. and Mrs. Lionel Bell, of Birch Cliffe, are putting up an attractive addition to their cosy home, which is built on the same plan as one is apt to see on the English Downs. Mr. Charles R. Ford, of Toronto, has the carpenter work to do.

In sending in her contribution to the Mathison Oil-Painting and Testimonial Fund, P. H. Van Der Voort, of Van Vancouper, B. C., pays a very high tribute to our former Supt. and lauds to the skies the great honor his old friends are going to pay him at Belleville this coming June. It will be remembered that that Mrs. Van Der Voort was formerly Miss Lily Metcalfe, stenographer and secretary in the superintendent's office and sister-in-law of Mr. William Douglas, formerly boys' supervisor and storekeeper at our Alma Mater.

We regret to say that Mr. George Young, who has been an inmate of the Belleville House of Refuge for the past fifteen years, passed away on April 24th, in his 67th year. Not only was he deaf, but almost totally blind as well. He leaves a wife, formerly Miss Martha Johnson, to mourn his loss. She is still at the Refuge.

The heartfelt sympathy of all her friends goes out to Mrs. Thomas A. Middleton, of Horning Mills, and other relatives, upon the recent death of her sister, Annie, Mrs. Willress. The deceased, who died on April 23d from influenza, was known to many of the deaf. She was of a very intelligent and affable disposition, and her loss will be keenly felt by all who knew her. As soon as her case was considered serious, Mrs. Middleton hastened to her side, along with other relatives, but before they arrived at Huntsville, the vital spark of life had gone and their dear sister had crossed the Great Divide to abide forever in His keeping on the Golden Sands. We regret we did not see Mrs. Middleton or other relatives, while passing through Toronto, en route for Huntsville.

We congratulate Mr. Edward Crozier, of Springvale, only son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas D. Crozier of that place, upon his marriage, on March 26th, to a young and clever lady of that neighborhood.

Miss Maud Francis, of New York City, passed through Toronto on April 24th, on her way to his sister's funeral in Huntsville. She is the brilliant and youngest sister of Mr. Thomas A. Middleton, of Horning Mills. She is a trained nurse and served overseas during the great World War.

LOS ANGELES.

Following the rains of March, a good rainfall in the early part of April brought us up close to the average of last season, causing much joy and happiness to the people of the Southland. These wet days were succeeded by a few days of gloomy weather, since which time it has been very warm and beautiful. The thermometer rising close to 90 degrees, drove the people either to the sea and mountains. The warm spell was soon followed by unsettled cloudy weather, which finally culminated in a heavy down-pour this morning, which is bringing vegetation to the front. Gardens and all crops have a fine start now.

Regular monthly business meeting of Local Division, No. 27, the Los Angeles Silent Club and the Sunny Side Club, took place as usual during the early part of this month. The feature of Division No. 27, was Bro. Handley's passing around cigars on account of his being again a daddy of a boy-baby, and Bro F. Bulmer did likewise to celebrate his having been married. A feature at the Los Angeles Silent Club was a most impressive and interesting illustration of both the Owens Water and Boulder Dam, projects given through a real motion picture, and which was greatly enjoyed by all present. The Sunny Side Club's feature was the consolidation of the Club with the Los Angeles Athletic Club of the Deaf, which consolidation will be known hereafter, as the "Los Angeles Athletic Club of the Deaf."

Unquestionably the Pacific Coast Cities are entitled to the distinction of being the first in the country to honor the opening of the Baseball League Season, on the afternoon of the 8th ult. The League has since been playing without hitch, San Francisco the champions of last year, being on top again. The team may occupy, however, a different position at the end of the season.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. O. Smith was the scene of a very pleasant "Joint Birthday" party on the eve of the 16th ult. The affair was very unique, as the birthdays of seven ladies and gentlemen all occur in April. Their names and dates are as follows: Mrs. Owen April 2d; Mrs. Hultene, April 10th; Mrs. Ellevyn, April 11th; Mr. Roberts, April 14th; Mr. Edwards, April 17th; Mr. Sparling, April 26th, and Mr. Brimble, April 30th. Each received a fine cake lit with tiny candles, besides the presents given by the guests.

On a most beautiful and pleasant Easter Day, the St. Andrew's Church was blessed with a full attendance of the deaf, Rev. Clarence Webb preaching. A combined baptismal and communion service was held there. The names of the parents who had their babies and children baptized were as follows: Mr. and Mrs. Hultene, five-month-old girl baby; Mr. and Mrs. T. Singleton, baby and child; Mrs. Owen, three-year old boy; Mr. and Mrs. Hollinger, baby and child; and Mr. and Mrs. Depew, five-year old boy. Mr. H. Gerner acted as lay reader, assistant to Rev. Mr. Webb during the afternoon's Easter ceremonies.

Don't let the dates slip your mind (July 3, 4 and 5), but join us in our celebration here. The California Association of the Deaf is making every effort to insure the great success of the event. Do cooperate with the association cheerfully. The details of the event will be announced in the next issue.

Los Angeles is considered to be the first place in the country for the deaf to organize and incorporate a furniture manufacturing Co. Following is an exploration of its enterprise.

"The deaf people of Los Angeles have organized and incorporated a furniture manufacturing company for the purpose of providing the Pacific South West with a factory equipped to manufacture high grade furniture, principally school, laboratory furniture, or any other furniture, for which orders may be obtained.

The factory will cover approximately 60,000 square feet, all on the main floor and built so that units can be added.

Approximately 80 to 100 men will be employed at the start, and it is anticipated that this number will soon be increased to 150 men.

The purpose of the organization is to bring the deaf people of California together in work, play, school, etc., and we believe we will succeed in this purpose.

We expect to see approximately three or four hundred deaf people within a short time purchase their homes, have their own stores, their schools and a place of work within a short distance from the proposed factory site.

This factory will employ approximately 80 per cent deaf people. This makes the proposition a strictly deaf people organization.

Wages are to be determined by committee of five, and standard wages, such as are paid by other employers, will be maintained.

The management of this company has been placed in the hands of very competent men with years of experience, and we feel confident in stating that this company should earn its stockholders substantial dividends in the near future.

"This company is incorporated for $300,000.00, divided into 3000 equal shares, par value of $100.00 per share.

"We enclose, herewith, a stock subscription blank with the permit on the reverse side thereof, and those who are interested in this enterprise are requested to sign the subscription blank, sending check or money order to the Continental National Bank of Los Angeles, to cover at least 50 per cent of the total amount, with the understanding that the balance will be paid in two equal monthly installments of thirty or sixty days.

"For further information write Mr. Rothert, 687 So. Harvard Blvd., Los Angeles, California.

"For those who wish employment, communicate with Mr. H. Wohlhart, 7409 Walnut Drive, Los Angeles.

"We have every confidence that we can look for a whole hearted support from the deaf people in the State of California."

Mrs. W. Cook received from Britain, Connecticut, last week word of the death of her father, who was ninety-three years old. She had the good fortune to visit him there two years ago.

Mr. D. Kaiser's recent purchase of a home up in Oakland, proves that he will not be a permanent Angeleno. He and his wife left here several weeks ago.

Mr. A. Hartman, formerly of Hollister, but now of Bakerfield, surprised his old time school friends with a pleasant call two weeks ago. During his brief stay he attended to his business on his own home, and then returned home.

Mr. H. Wood is a new addition to the list of the local silent auto owners as a result of having bought a used car (Chevrolet). He said that after learning thoroughly he would purchase a new one.

The stork introduced a baby-boy to Mr. and Mrs. R. Handley on the third of this month. They already have a little son, therefore they have two kings.

Mr. James Turner blew into town from Oakland unexpectedly, and spent a pleasant week with us before returning home. He said he would come here again, if he lives.

Mr. Albert Ballin, of New York, and Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Paxton, of Kansas, were new, interesting acquisitions to the Los Angeles Silent Club last Saturday. The former will make his home here if he strikes a good stride, and the latter couple has already fully decided to live here permanently. Mr. Paxton has been employed by the Santa Fe R. R. for 33 years, and retired on a pension recently.

Mr. W. Phelps has been confined to his home for several weeks, owing to heavy colds. At this present writing he is making good progress towards recovery.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Dudley are busy preparing their plans for taking a several months' motoring tour up north as far as British Columbia, and then south as far as Texas by way of Wyoming. They have rented their Santa Monica bungalow to a party.

Mr. C. Doane has been busy getting his brains "brushed up" ready to represent the Frat Convention at St. Paul, since he was elected delegate.

Hamburgers, where the composition is capably taken care of by Smiling Steve O'Leary, is the largest dry goods store in town, and probably on the coast. His employees are so satisfied that Steve recognizes no handicap in the performance of his duties. "Stick to the job."

The base ball schedule as follows: May 10—Monarchs.

May 17—Colonial Signal Oil Co.

May 31—Colonial Social and Athletic Club.

June 7—Green Coffee.

June 14—Deaf-Mutes' Union League.

Captain Chester C. Altenderfer, known as the veteran 3d base player, was long out of practice, but succeeded in striking a ball with his mighty swing, which pretty fled against the laundry building chimney.

On Thursday last, May Day, the Cadet Band and Field Music paraded in the Boys' Loyalty Parade, composed of 60,000 boys. The line of March was from 75th Street, down Fifth Avenue to Union Square. All along the line our boys received hearty applause, and out of twenty five bands which were in the parade, ours was among the four mentioned in the daily newspapers.

Principal Gardner, accompanied by Dr. Taylor, principal of the Lexington Avenue School, left New York early on Monday for a visit to nearly all the New England Schools for the Deaf. They propose to visit the Mystic (Ct.) School, the Horace Mann School in Boston, the Clarke School at Northampton, and the American School at Hartford. They make the trip by automobile—Mr. Gardner using his Studebaker car. They expect to be back in a week.

SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA.

The last public meeting in the interest of the new co-operative organization, the Anderson Wohlfarth Furniture Manufacturing Company was held some time ago. To protect the company from misrepresentation, and to make an authoritative statement of the aims of the company, the president has filed with the County Recorder a complete record of the steps taken in the organization and incorporation. Permits have been granted after an exhaustive investigation by the State for the sale of stock. Six and half acres in Pico, ten miles from Los Angeles, have been bought, and the building will very probably be started next fall.

I have criticized publicly and privately the scheme, and am forced now to acknowledge that I may have been too apprehensive. The organizers, now the officers, seem to be honest and sincere in their purposes, and I know the scheme is commendable for its co-operative intent and spirit. Now that the scheme has finally been started towards materialization, it will be up to the deaf directors and stockholders to push on towards success and to protect themselves and their interests. It is up to them to stick together through struggles, disappointments, obstacles and trials of development. The president and factory manager have had long and successful experience in the furniture business, and another director has practical working knowledge of the business. The articles of incorporation have been drawn to conform to the laws of California.

Criticism can be constructive as well as destructive. I am always glad to help in building up, and I hate to be compelled to destroy or to help destroy. I am optimistic and hate to be pessimistic. I believe the world is growing better and better every day. Do not misconstrue my motives. I am not revengeful or satirical. If I make mistakes, call my attention, and I will gladly correct them.

A. C. Dreyer, of Topeka, Kan., has written Omar Harshman in inquiry as to locating in Los Angeles. He is a fine barber.

The father of W. L. Tipton, of McPherson, Kan., died March 25th. He settled in Kansas, when land was cheap, and the rise in price with the increasing population and extension of grain and stock farming made him wealthy. His business acumen helped in the fortune-making. He was conservative in his methods. W. L. Tipton was the first farmer in his territory to use a tractor, and took after his father in financial ability.

The Thia Juana trip of three autos of Los Angeles deaf was on the whole enjoyable. But on account of the foot and mouth plague and county quarantines, the autos had to have the wheels disinfected by plunging through sheep dip in a trench dug in the roads. The auto in which Mr. H. Brimble rode, was reported stalled on a grade, because the tank was below the level of the carburetor bowl. But having read in AEsops Fables of the strategy of the stork in raising the water in the deep bottle to the neck by dropping pebbles in, he appropriated one of the women's package of cucumbers and dropping them down into the gas tank, soon enabled the car to make the grade. If you doubt this tale, just ask Mr. Brimble. I am told one Los Angeles deaf mute is kicking about my criticism of him for driving a powerful car at high speed. I am justified, for he does not see well.

Douglas Mitchelson is making over his property at Montebello, and soon it will be a beauty spot to attract travelers along Whittier Boulevard.

Richard Rawlings, he of the typical medieval monk build and face, was in Los Angeles on one of his usual trips, via the brake rod.

The Athletic Club of the Deaf has written a letter to the Los Angeles Silent Club, inviting co-operation in merging the two clubs. I hope the movement will succeed, as it will assure the success of the movement for a club house for the deaf. If one small club in Oakland can make a rented place go, why can not the united Los Angeles clubs make an owned place go, with the much greater membership and the greater deaf population of the territory?

A month birth party was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Omar Smith. Seven persons, who had their birthdays in April, were given a treat at one time. It is hoped other month-birth parties will be held in the future. It assures more fun and enjoyment.

E. S. Paxton and wife, of Newton, Kan., will move to Los Angeles, to make their home with their son. E. S. was a master blacksmith in the Santa Fe round house at Newton, and retired a few years ago, after 30 years' service, with a pension.

The Examiner held a liars' contest recently. The winner told of lifting one end of the Panama Canal to make it level. Too bad, W. E. Dudley did not enter the contest for he claims, he did one fortification contract in one day, with the help of the far-famed Paul Bunyan and his blue oxen. Paul Bunyan is the fellow who created the Grand Canyon of the Colorado River, by dragging his pick behind him, on his homeward bound trip after a hard day's work.

Gallaudet College.

The members of the Senior Class attended the reception given at the White House to the graduating classes of the various schools in and around Washington. Mrs. Coolidge proved herself a most charming hostess.

The Phi Alpha Sigma fraternity banqueted at one of the downtown hotels Saturday evening, May 3d.

Miss Elizabeth Ely, daughter of Dr. C. R. Ely of our faculty was married Saturday evening, May 3d, to Mr. Elmer Stewart of this city. This is the first of the several weddings of the young ladies of Kendall Green that are to take place this summer.

Miss Margaret Wafer is to wed Mr. Leonard Elstad, both are members of our faculty. Miss Ida Gaarder will also be married in June, to Mr. W. F. Mengert, formerly an instructor here. There are several winsome Co-eds who may surprise us, but we don't know.

Nathan Zimble, '24, the mighty atom, campus sissy et al, is now a champion of champions. In the recent South Atlantic amateur wrestling tourney at Baltimore Zimble won the fly weight wrestling medal, and is now in line for the finals at New York. Zimble also competed in a heavier class, 125 pounds, but was defeated. The mighty atom only weighs 109 pounds.

Those birds who midget one another and winked when Zimble was elected Captain of the wrestling squad last fall, haven't recovered from the shock. The championship medal is almost as big as "Zimmy" is himself. This is the best record made by any wrestler in college for quite awhile. It took a little fellow wearing bell-shaped pants and shell-rin
